The Long, Curly Strands of Nigger Hair

NIGGER HAIR is the best of Long Cut—made from ripe, long, selected leaves—no short or broken leaves used.

That's why NIGGER HAIR comes in long, curly strands of tobacco that make a tasty, flavory chew—that pack just right in your pipe, burn slowly, and give you a long, cool, enjoyable smoke. The old-time smokers named this brand "NIGGER HAIR" because of this long curly cut.

NIGGER HAIR

Long Cut Tobacco

Only mild Burley leaf goes into NIGGER HAIR—after long and careful ageing that brings out all the delightful fragrance, sweetness and mellowness of this famously good tobacco.

Give NIGGER HAIR a week's trial. Smoke it and chew it all day long. You'll wind up by sticking to NIGGER HAIR the year 'round, as many thousands of wise tobacco users do. Sold Everywhere in 5c packages.

REVIEW EARLY DAYS OF CITY'S HISTORY

JANSVILLE IN ANTE-BELLUM TIMES DESCRIBED BY WITNESSES IN CIRCUIT COURT.

BEGIN IMPORTANT SUIT

Action of State Against Owners of Property Along Milwaukee Street Bridge Will be Stubbornly Contested.

Early days of Jansville's history were reviewed by witnesses testifying in the circuit court for Rock county today in the action brought by the state against George G. Suber and others for the abatement of nuisances in Rock river, especially the buildings erected over the river on the southern side of the Milwaukee street bridge and known as the "Big Mill" block. Two other cases, one of the state against Edwin F. Carpenter and William McLaughlin, and the other against W. C. Jeffris, involve the same issue, and will be either tried or settled depending upon the outcome of the present action. The case is being tried before Judge A. Fowler of Fond du Lac, who is called in to try the case following the filing of an affidavit of prejudice against Judge George Graham by Attorney General Walter C. Owen.

Witnesses called today by the state in opening its case included Mrs. Isabelle Clark, who came to Jansville to live in 1855, and was one of the first of this city, who ran a log on Rock river from Jefferson to Jansville in 1847 and 1848, and Nels Carlson, who aided in cutting the chute in the upper dam during the flood of 1851, and was the highest stage ever reached by the Rock river at this point.

Mrs. Clark was closely questioned by Ralph W. Jackson, special counsel for the state, regarding the location of certain buildings in Jansville, including the Griffiths block at the west end of Milwaukee street, bridge, and the frame building in its rear, and the stove of which was located a millinery shop. She was also asked concerning the "Big Mill" located near the river bank on the west side, and the burner liquor store, which was located at the water's edge on the west side, and the east wall of which was supported on a pier built from the river bottom.

Mrs. Clark told of the Myers building, a frame structure which stood in the middle of the river on the south side of the Milwaukee street bridge. She testified that there was a space between the "Big Mill" and the river bank, also between the mill and the lumber store. She recalled two lumber yards and a saw mill on the west side of the river and told of sealing logs and lumber. Loaded down the river in rafts in the years prior to 1850. She also testified concerning the flood of 1851, when the river flooded Main and River streets, making necessary to build an earth dam across the river, which was later torn down to prevent serious damage to the property below.

A steamer, which came to Jansville and anchored near the west end of the court street bridge, was described by Mrs. Clark, who said that it was considered a wonder by the natives, but that to her, who had just come from a large city, it was small and insignificant.

Horace Cunningham, a resident of Jansville since 1857, told of logging operations which he conducted in the late forties, when he was assistant of John Atkinson and Jackson. He testified that he rode down through the chute of the upper dam and took them to a sawmill on the river, owned by a man named Nels, according to Cunningham, there has been no logging activity in Rock river since 1850.

The testimony of Nels Carlson was largely relative to the flood of 1851, which followed the severe flood of 1850. At that time the water reached to the floor of the dining room of his residence at the corner of North Main street and Pearl avenue. He told of cutting the chute in the dam to lower the water and of the embankment built along Main street to stop the spread of the flood water. Mr. Carlson also told of some of the boats which operated on Rock river above the dam, including the "Queen of the West," a double decker, which carried passengers and cargo, and was operated about 1855. "The Bower City Belle," "The Little Lion," and the "Billie Burr."

The action now on trial is of importance to this city in that it is the property owners involved, and the decision will have its effect on similar property located over Rock river in the cities of Beloit and Rock Atkinson. In case of a decision against the defendants, it is probable that an effort will be made at once to erect buildings over the river along either side of the present Milwaukee street bridge. In case the state emerges finally successful, it may mean the eradication of present buildings built over the river, involving a heavy property loss to the owners and to the city. In any event, the action will be fought to the limit and will probably be carried to the supreme court.

The state's case is being conducted by Attorneys Jackson and Swanson, as special counsel, and the defendant, Mrs. Suber, is represented by Charles E. Hogue and M. O. Mont, of the firm of Jeffris, Nout, Oestreich and Avery.

Not Guilty of Drunkenness Charges But Their Misdeeds Raise Wrath of Court Judge.

Mrs. Edward Erickson, 1403 Mole street, and Frank Erickson were given a scathing lecture and warning by Judge Harry L. Maxfield in municipal court this morning after Judge Maxfield found them not guilty of drunkenness charges. Mrs. Erickson and Storm were arrested by the police in the "Jungles" back of the hospital and beer bottles and two glasses, the contents of one entirely consumed and the other full, were found in their possession.

Officer William Gower, who made the arrests, testified that in his estimation the two had been drinking, but that they were able to care for their own safety. On this information the court dismissed the charges, but before he permitted them to leave he warned Mrs. Erickson to quit traveling around with men other than her husband, and also warned Storm to stop keeping company with married women. Mrs. Erickson admitted this and promised to go back to her husband and children.

JANSVILLE RAILROAD MEN CLAIM STRIKE WON'T COME

such men as are designated certain duties to perform by authority of the organization.

Every man should understand that the laws of the land must be obeyed. Acts of violence of any nature will not be tolerated by the organization.

The local representatives will arrange for a hall for meeting purposes at all terminals. Immediately after the strike becomes effective all men will assemble at the hall. No person will be permitted to present other than those on strike except permission of the assembly.

The secretary will arrange a roll call, which will be called every morning and afternoon. The names of the non-strikers will be kept separate on the roll from the names of those who are members of the organization. All strikers will be required to answer the roll call unless excused by committee action or by chairman of the meeting.

On the conduct of every strike there are innumerable responsible persons, not members of the organization, who take occasion to engage in acts of violence or disorderly conduct, and such actions are to be discouraged so as not to cast reproach upon the cause.

Some railroad officials may endeavor to coerce or mislead men by asserting that men at other points have not quit or that they have returned to work. Such information should be disregarded. All strikers should apply to their officers and committee for information and be governed accordingly, and no member or non-striker man will return to work until the strike officials decide which all will return to work at the same time without prejudice and with all former rights.

PLAN RECEPTION FOR COMPANY RETURNING FROM CAMP DOUGLAS

Bower City Band, United Spanish War Veterans, Former Wisconsin Guardsmen, to Meet Separate Company Wednesday.

While they are not returning from an arduous duty on the Mexican frontier, or from any active service, the arrival of the Second Separate Company, Wisconsin National Guard, from their ten days' camp service at Camp Douglas, will be marked by a formal reception at the Chicago and Northwestern depot at three-thirty on Wednesday afternoon.

Commander C. H. Cox of the Harry L. Gifford Camp, United Spanish American War Veterans, urges all of the city to be at the depot to meet the returning soldiers a warm welcome. The Bower City band, who have volunteered their services on several occasions in the past, when the recruiting for the company was in progress, have also announced they will be on hand to furnish the musical inspiration and escort the soldiers to their depot.

Carl Buchholz, trust department commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, and a former member of the Jansville company that served during the Spanish American war, has issued a call for all former soldiers to be present to make the welcome as general as possible. As there are a goodly number of former soldiers in the city, and this appeal includes all it is expected there will be a goodly representation at the depot when the train arrives.

Major James A. Fatters, who has been much interested in the organization of the new militia company, and who was instrumental in insuring its being mustered into service, also adds his appeal to citizens generally to be on hand to give the glad news of welcome to the soldier boys returning from their first camp.

They marched away on Monday morning, August 28, in battalions of 100 men, and returned Wednesday, and returned Wednesday fully equipped. Their new armory over the Kammeyer garage is being rushed to completion and when finished will be one of the most complete in the state. While at the state camp, the company was complimented many times for its soldierly bearing of the men, their attention to drill and marked improvement they have shown.

This is the first militia company Jansville has had in several years and the citizens should be proud of it. The general interest shown in its organization and the manner in which the enlisted men took hold of the work attending drills, has all gone to assure the citizens of a first class company when the state guard is re-organized at the expiration of the term of service of the Wisconsin regiments on the Mexican border and the new regiments are added to the state equipment.

NOTICE!
Will the party of two that took the tools from my potato field on Ringer street, Sunday night, please return them. NEWS OF BROTHER'S DEATH COMES TO MRS. J. HIGGINS

ENGLISH GIRL BRAVE AT FRONT AT VERDUN AS BIG SHELLS BUST

Dined by Three Generals for Her Commandable Work in Raising Money for Relief Hospitals.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
London, Aug. 29.—The first girl who has been right up to the front of the French army, is Kathleen Burke, the young English girl who on her tour came this year in the belief of the Scottish Women's Hospital to the Eastern Front and Canada, collected so much money that on returning she was hailed in the newspapers as the "thousand-dollar-day girl."

A group of a girl of the type that might be afraid of the report of a rifle, Miss Burke stood calmly by the side of the officers in Verdun, the only big shells were dropping about her, and the direction of a counter-attack that required the enemy.

As a special mark of appreciation of the splendid devotion of the body of workers she represents and of her own zeal in raising more than a million francs in support of hospitals treating wounded French soldiers, she was entertained by three great generals. Her hosts were General Garin, the original commander of Verdun, General Nivelle, now in command of the Army of Verdun and General Dubois, in command in Verdun. General Dubois was also received by General Joffre, at a dinner in the vaults of the Citadel of Verdun toasts to the success of the army and to the visitor's health were proposed to the accompaniment of the boom of the big guns.

Under the care of the Commandant Jean de Pulligny, of the Ministry of Munitions, she was taken to the French Engineering Commission in the United States, in an automobile driven at her disposition by the French government. Miss Burke visited particularly the front line, paying particular attention to the work of the hospitals. She remained in France about a month. "Ten days after my arrival I assisted at the opening of a new ward of 100 beds in the hospital of the Scottish women of Edinburgh," she said. "The ward is called 'Canada' because it was funded by the Canadian money. The money was given to me by Canadian cities during my hurried visit to Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, and London, Ontario. The Canadian Red Cross made me a splendid gift of a sword."

Everywhere I was tremendously impressed by the work of the hospitals, their remarkable systems whereby the wounded are so promptly given the best attention, and I was glad to witness the wonderful work of the American Ambulance sections.
I saw several and they were much eager to be fighting line than anyone could imagine, the young men being constantly in the greatest peril, but eager to forget in their zeal all about their personal safety."

Although she knew it in a vague way, Miss Burke says that she did not realize the great danger she was in at Verdun as she stood out near the top of the Citadel and watched the battle. Men were falling within a few hundred yards of her. "It was a bit thrilling," she said, "especially to see the big shells 'rough-words' from Krupps, as the officers referred to them, falling on various sides. I do not retain any impressions of any of them individually, but one burst some 200 yards away from where we stood.
It was a big one. We did indeed feel quite safe when we were in the comfortable and protected vaults under the Citadel. I think it must have been the perfect ease and lack of the slightest trace of anxiety among the officers that set me so much at my own ease during the terrific campaign of the big guns."

For her efforts in behalf of the Serbian, Miss Burke has been made a youngest of the roll. Her organization had four hospitals in Serbia and transferred their work after the German occupation to Saloniki and Corinth, where they have the medical care of 6,000 Serbian refugees. Another unit is leaving shortly for Russia and a unit which left last month for Saloniki to join the Serbian army is called the "Kathleen Burke" unit as it was paid for with funds subscribed in America.

G. O. P. IN ROUGH AND TUMBLE FIGHT IN MICHIGAN TODAY

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Detroit, Aug. 29.—Political parties in Michigan today named their candidates for the November election. For the Democrats the primary balloting was merely the formal ratification of the selections of the party organization chiefs, but Republicans were going a rough and tumble scrap for nearly every office in the State.

Candidates were being selected for governor, lieutenant governor, United States senator, congress, the state senate and state representatives. A five men sought the Republican nomination for governor. They were Frank B. Leland, banker, of Detroit; Albert B. Sleeper, former state transportation commissioner, of Lansing; Holland, ex-congressman, of Grand Rapids; Gardner, former congressman and former commander-in-chief of the G.
A. R. of Albion; and S. Bryant Westcott, of Grand Rapids.

Democrats cast their ballots for Charles H. Bender of Grand Rapids for governor, following the refusal of Gov. Harris to seek a third term. Bender's name went on the primary ballot despite his protest that he did not want the nomination and "could not think of accepting it" because of business responsibilities.

United States Senator Charles E.
Townsend of Jackson was opposed for re-nomination on the Republican ticket by William T. Hall, Detroit drug manufacturer, and Theodore Joselyn, of Adrian, both former progressives.

TERMONDE IS SCENE OF BIG FOOD RIOTS

Former Prosperous Belgian Town is Scene of Devastating Food Riots.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 28.—Ter-monde, a prosperous town of 10,000 inhabitants at the beginning of the war, but now a scene of food riots, according to recent despatches, spreads over both banks of the Den-der river and the right bank of the Scheldt, the Dender forming a juncture with the larger waterway at a point says today's war geography bulletin of the National Geographic society, an one of the cities of Belgium which is feeling keenly the pinch of privation.

"Situating only 16 miles east of Ghent, the great heart of Flemish history, Termonde itself has a past of which its citizens may well be proud.
It was here that Louis XIV. suffered an ignominious defeat at the beginning of his War of Revolution.
Queen's blood was shed in which he about to upset political customs and substitute civil usage in the matter of royal inheritance. When his father-in-law, Philip IV. of Spain, died Louis succeeded him to the throne in the name of his wife, Maria Theresa, who was a more figurehead at the French court during the sway of the northern Madame de La Valliere and Mme. De Montespan, and in later years of the devout Mme. Mainenon.
Louis' defeat at Termonde was due not to the prowess of the city's garrison but to the self-sacrifice of her people who employed every possible means of the North sea to fight their battle for them, as has been the case so many times in the history of the city. The dykes were cut and the inhabiting army of the Grand Monarque fled before the flood.

During the war of the Spanish Succession Termonde bravely resisted the great English general Marshall, but after a ten days' siege barricade was forced to yield. This occurred in the famous campaign of 1709 during which Marlborough achieved his famous victory at Ramillies, 50 miles to the southeast, where the French under Marshal Villeroi lost 15,000 men while the English and their Dutch allies sustained a loss of less than one-third that number.
"On many maps Termonde goes by its Flemish name of Dendermonde.
At the outbreak of the war it was one of the fortified towns of Belgium, but its defenses were not of modern design. The city is 25 miles by rail southwest of Antwerp. It is 15 miles from Lokeren and 13 miles from Ghent. It is one of the towns of Belgium where rioting occurred simultaneously with the outbreaks at Termonde.

"The most interesting buildings in Termonde are the Hotel de Ville (formerly the City Hall), a fourteenth century structure, and the Gothic church of Notre Dame which contains two valuable pictures by Van Dyck.
Termonde is only 20 miles above sea-level, a fact which accounts for the ease with which the surrounding country was flooded when besieged in 1667."

ESCANABA'S FIRST MURDER IN NUMBER OF YEARS; MAN SHOOT'S WIFE; KILLS SELF

Escanaba, Mich., Aug. 28.—Throughout a tragedy at the home of Wood-ley Hale, 56 years old, Escanaba has had its first murder in many years. Neighbors heard screams coming from the Hale home and police were summoned.
They discovered Mr. Hale lying dead on the floor of the cottage with bullet hole in his head and his right hand tightly grasping a revolver.
In a bed room the body of a revolver was found lying on the floor.
The furniture scattered about the room showed that a terrible struggle took place before the murder was committed.

Bert B. Hale, a son 23 years of age, said he had taken lunch at his home and noticed nothing peculiar about his father's actions, although it is believed that he suffered a mental break as the result of a sun stroke which overcame him while he was visiting in Wisconsin.

The bodies of both were taken to Antigo for burial.

NEWS NOTES from MIDLAND OF DAISY DEAN

Gladys Hulette, star, seeks the usual part in the world. Other motion picture actresses may have overriding ambitions for a herd of motor cars, some may seek jewels, a few may hope to marry the most beautiful man alive, but these desires are not a part of Gladys Hulette. She wants an ugly pup.

Miss Hulette, who has just finished making "The Shine Girl," a production that is to be released through Pathe, is now working with William Parke, her director, on a picture to be called "Prudence, the Pirate." Miss Agnes C. Johnson, who wrote the story, entered in the cast "Pan-thus, the ugliest puppy in captivity."

This pup is to be Miss Hulette's chief adversary throughout her adventures in the picture.

MARGUERITE TO QUIT

Marguerite Clark, reaching a height of popularity which makes her nearly so popular as Mary Pickford, is to quit the movies soon to capitalize her popularity on the stage. This is to be in a musical comedy to be produced by Charles Dillingham.

No longer will there talk about a stage star losing drawing power on the stage by permitting herself to be shown in pictures.

Miss Clark says she won't appear in pictures for at least a year after the conclusion of her present contract.

Doris Baker, now appearing in pictures, is to be seen on the screen at present in two current feature releases. One is the Koid and Bill picture, "Glory," in which Doris plays Doris had one of her biggest roles in the picture, and the other the University picture, "A Daughter of the Night."

At the same time, Doris is at Hun-a program of stunts to do that would show the courage of a much older photo-player.

PORTO RICO EXPERIENCES MOST PROSPEROUS YEAR IN HISTORY OF ISLAND

San Juan, P. R., Aug. 29.—Porto Rico has just completed the most prosperous year in its history. Official figures compiled up to July 1st show exports and imports at a value in excess of $105,000,000, an increase of $20,000,000 over last year, and a gain of more than $10,000,000 over 1912 which had been the banner year.

Exports for the past year exceeded $66,750,000, which figure was slightly less than $39,000,000 of 1912. This the island shipped to the United States products valued at almost $61,000,000 and in return bought goods valued at $24,750,000. Out of the total trade of more than $105,000,000, more than $95,000,000 was with the United States.

There was a balance of trade in the island's favor of more than $27,000,000.
High sugar prices and a large increase in the sugar output were chiefly responsible for the big increase in the island's trade. During the twelve months ending with June the sugar exports were $24,350,000, an increase of $45,800,000. The average price of $103 per ton received for this sugar was the highest price in the history of the island's industry. Other chief items of export were coffee valued at more than $5,000,000; cigars at more than $5,500,000; oranges, grapefruit and pineapples valued at almost $2, 000,000; and all other products valued at approximately $3,000,000.

The island's chief purchases from the United States were rice, valued at $5,600,000, flour valued at approximately $2,000,000, beans and pickled port value at $2,000,000.

Approximately a million dollars was spent for automobiles.

AT THE NEW MYERS.

"In Old Kentucky" which will be given at the New Myers Sunday, Sept. 3, matinee and night, has entertained there players throughout the United States and Canada, and many drama now current, and it is today one of the most wholesome, most interesting, and one of the most absorbing and thrilling of all

"MADGE" and "THE COLONEL," leading characters in the charming play, "In Old Kentucky," at the New Myers Theatre, Sunday, matinee and evening, Sept. 3rd.

The stage offerings of the day. It is worth anyone's time to sit through a performance of this delightful drama. There are scenes of realism that leave a strong impression on the mind, and such genuine and sparkling humor, breezy and wholesome.
The story unfolded in the play is an idyllic one and charming with its simple purity and truth. There is a lovable mountain lass who does heroic things in a natural manner and there is a manly young hero of the right sort. Miss Halie Myers in the leading role of the brave mountain girl, gives a splendid portrayal of this trying part. A fine company and a pretentious scenic environment is promised—and the ever-amusing Ethel "Naked Hearts," of child actresses, Gordon Griffith and Geo-Hupp will have practically to themselves the first act of "Naked Hearts." Photoplays at the Beverly theatre tonight. These children present the childish episodes in the play, founded on Emerson's "Maud," which are later played as "regrets," by Francella Billington, Rupert Julian and Jack Holt later in the piece. Child actresses and actors are always interesting, especially when they are endowed with the particular cleverness that these three little folks possess. There will be particular charm in their interpretations, as they are represented at an age when children are practiced as a science and these little ones, in their converse and actions, are pictured as, imitating their elders in highly entertaining fashion.

Billie Burke in "Gloria's Romance." Gloria Stafford, after being ill for many days with pneumonia, begins to convalesce under the skillful treatment of Dr. Stephen Royce, an old time friend of the family who dearly loves Gloria, though the latter is entirely infatuated with Richard Frenau, a thorough cad who has had affairs with a dozen different women. One of Frenau's old flames learns of his intrigue with Mrs. David Stafford, Gloria's sister-in-law, and writes an anonymous letter to Stafford, warning him to watch his wife. David prepares a trap for his wife, by announcing that he is going South for a week or more, and she immediately plans to take a little trip with Frenau, during her husband's absence. To escape the reproaches of Mrs. Stafford, with whom he is honestly trying to break off relationships, and to avoid suspicion by

THE OLD MAN'S SEARCH HAS ENDED.

THAT LISTENS GOOD!
I'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR A REAL GOOD
CHEW FOR OVER 50 YEARS!

YOU'LL call it a lucky day when you find the satisfaction there is in a small chew of W. E. CUT Chewing. With most chews the flavor of rich tobacco is a genuine surprise party. There's another surprise—you keep your jaws quiet and restful, for the salt brings out the flavor without so much chewing and spitting. You think it queer how so small a nibble does the trick and lasts so long—but it's rich tobacco, that's it. In 10c. pouches, at enterprising dealers.

Made by WEYMARK-BRUTON COMPANY, 50 Union Square, New York City

"Good for You!"

"I Say, Joe, that was some clout you hammered out. These 'homers' are the ones that count. That one of yours will sure 'sew up' this game. You think it funny to see an old fellow like me so interested, but I feel as young and frisky as a kitten."

"BLATZ Beer is responsible—I've been drinking it for well nigh fifty years. It keeps me toned up and makes me healthy and strong."

"You fellows should drink

Blatz

The best beer brewed"

George Stovall, for four years manager in the big leagues, in an editorial in the Kansas City Star, says: "And here's another thing that may sound odd, but it's true just the same, and every old ball player will tell you so: a glass or two of beer after a game does not hurt any ball player—on the contrary, I believe it is a good thing. The player has expended a lot of energy; is hot through and through and a glass of beer will do him good. I've done that all my life, and nine out of every ten ball players who have played the game for ten or twelve years have done the same thing and will tell you so."

The Triangular label on all BLATZ beer is a guarantee of uniform purity and flavor

JIM SCOTT TO HURL AGAINST CARDINALS IN GAMES AT BELOIT

White Sox Pitcher Now Playing With Fairies, to Oppose Cards and Red Ormsby Saturday.

Janesville and Beloit will book up in the fifth and sixth games of their nine game series next Saturday and Sunday, both games to be played at Beloit.

In the past Beloit has been the scene of the Saturday games and the clubs pastured in Janesville on the first day of the week, but so loud was the clamor of the Beloit fans for the Sunday game that Manager Caldwell was compelled to draw lots with Manager Chubb of the series and the next Sunday game of the series and Manager Caldwell and Janesville lost. Therefore both games will be played at Beloit, because an attempt to play a Saturday game in Janesville would be a losing venture financially.

The series now stands three to one with Beloit on the long end, and every effort is being made by the Janesville management to make it three all. Whether or not it can be done remains to be seen. This much is certain. The aggregation that will sport Janesville uniforms will have to subdue "Death Valley" Jim Scott, suspended Sox pitcher, and the old reliable, Sam Lafferty, to turn the trick.

Manager Caldwell will turn Tom McGuire loose on the enemy in the Sunday game against Scott and Red Ormsby, who will bend them over against Lafferty on Sunday.

Shocks the catcher who three years ago made the big round the world tour of the Sox and Giants, will grab them off behind the bat for the locals. Nelson will cover the first corner, and the acknowledged "class" of Chicago, expert third sacker and hitter extraordinary, and Phinix, the reliable short-stopper, will complete the infield.

Hedmann, considerable clouter, will mangle around in right field; Crutcher, hero of a thousand battles, will haul them in from the outfield. Hornbush will cover left. Taken all in all, this aggregation surpasses anything that has worn the Janesville monkey suits in a generation, and if they fail to haul down the Beloit color, then somebody else is entitled to the next game.

WATERFOWL SEASON OPENS SEPTEMBER 7

Janesville Hunters Preparing for Opening Week From Sunday.

Regulations for enforcement of the new federal migratory bird law have been approved by President Wilson and are now effective. The department of agriculture, however, advises all hunters to consult state laws because the federal regulations will not be construed to permit hunting within a state which has created a closed season if that season falls within a period which the federal government posts as open.

Shooting is prohibited between sunset and sunrise. Insectivorous birds are protected. Indefinitely, no open season is allowed. Band-tailed pigeons, cranes, wood ducks, swans, curlew, willet, upland plover, and smaller snowbirds are protected everywhere until Sept. 1, 1915.

The Wisconsin open season for migratory birds, dates are inclusive, is as follows:

Zone 1.
Waterfowl (except swans and wood ducks), coots, gallinules and jacksnipes—Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and Colorado—Sept. 7-Dec. 20.

Rails (except coots and gallinules)—Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Wyoming—Sept. 7-Dec. 20.

Pitcher Rod Eller, who deserted the Moline club of the Three-I and is now pitching independent ball, performed the remarkable feat at Kokomo, Ind., the other day of striking out thirteen batters in a row. He struck out twenty all told in the game. George Mullia worked for the Kokomo team against Eller and was hammered hard. Eller's team is known as the "Feds" and is reputed to be one of the fastest organizations in independent ball.

ZIM TO NEW YORK; DOYLE TO THE CUBS

Chicago Player Figures in Deal With Giants—Captain and Two Fielders to Cubs.

The much talked of Heinie Zimmerman trade was consummated yesterday. Heinie will go to the Giants, joining John McGraw's troupe in Cincinnati today. In return the Cubs get Larry Doyle, a recruit outfielder, and Hunter, a first baseman, who has been holding down the initial corner since Fred Merkle was sent to Brooklyn by McGraw last week.

The deal is the result of stubbornness of the big fielder while in a Cub uniform. Some time ago President Weegman suspended Heinie because he "laid down" and refused to make any extra effort to help win games. As Heinie is a star, a star, a star, it is figured that everybody else should dance a sailor's hornpipe at his say-so.

James McGill, president of the Indianapolis American association baseball club, has announced the sale of son to the Chicago Nationals. They will finish the season with the Indianapolis club. The prices paid for the players was not made public.

BENZ BEATS MEYERS, 1-0; NOW IN SECOND

Shuts Out Philadelphia and Sox Climb Into Tie With Detroit in Second Berth.

The White Sox moved into a tie for second place with Detroit yesterday when they defeated the lowly Athletics at Philadelphia 1 to 0. It was a pitcher's duel between Joe Judge and Meyer, but the Rowland twirler was edged all the way. Repeated Sox errors without fruit or advantage to the Athletics, two rallies after overthrows being cut off short and eliminating a single rally. Benz gave but three safe bingles, while Mr. Meyer's Sox drew seven.

Benz opened the Sox's sixth with a line drive to center. He was followed by Weaver, who took second on a single, and Collins, who was hit by a home run and Weaver came home with the lone run of the game.

MORRIS MILLER

Semi-pro baseball in Illinois has experienced the most unprofitable season in many years. Towns which previously supported the national game liberally have been lukewarm this year and many teams have been forced to disband through lack of interest. Managers and players have been seeking to determine the cause for lack of support, but in vain. The Anti-Sunday Baseball league of central Illinois, which prospered for two years, was forced to disband this year. The Ottumwa team, always a winner financially, could not attract spectators this season and quit the game. At Morris, Leamore, Peru, Streator and many other cities the game has not prospered. The managers have been forced to pocket losses to disband their teams. The teams at Joliet, Springfield and Decatur have made some money, but success only has been deceptive and the shrewdness of the respective managers in stimulating interest. There are cities in many towns and the experience of the season now waiting. The decline in interest has spread to the professional game, the Three-I and other minor of the middle west reporting smaller patronage than last season in the majority of the cities.

Matty is always there with a laugh when he is asked about his escape from becoming a first baseman instead of a pitcher. His conversion into a first baseman, almost, was due simply to the fact that he had happened to hit a couple of home runs. It immediately occurred to the colossal brains then handling the Sox that the man who batted home runs ought to be in the field every day instead of only one or twice a week. So Matty was notified that he must have to take up first basing. Before the change of plans had gone very far there was a change in managers and Matty returned to pitching without any further talk about his playing first base.

In the case of Pinky Burns, who it is reported will have real reason to find fault with the match. Burns graduated into the has-been class some time ago and would have much less chance of being than did Rosner. There are only two three men in America who would give him a stiff argument, but neither of the others would go over to certain defeat, mostly of the disgraceful sort. It is not as if Burns and Rosner are of chaps like Burns and John Bull.

Ed Pfeffer of Brooklyn contradicts one of the oldest big league traditions. Nearly always when two brothers break into the big league, the older of the two is the star, and the younger doesn't come near his ability. For instance, Buck Ewing and John Ewing, John Clarkson and his two younger brothers, Fred Clarke and John Clarke, Tyus Cobb and his brother Paul, Christy Mathewson and Henry Mathewson. But the younger is a better pitcher than his older brother, who was with the Cubs and Boston several years ago.

When Johnny Rosner went over to England to box Jimmy White, the wonderful flyweight boxer of that country and holder of the flyweight title, there was a general tendency on the part of English patrons of boxing to question the right of Rosner to oppose so formidable a boxer as the little Welshman. The promoters scouted the records that were produced in behalf of Rosner, and questioned their authenticity. In fact, by the time the men were ready to enter the ring Rosner was thoroughly discredited. While he was stopped by White in the eleventh round, still Rosner put up so gallant a fight that he made many friends among the spectators. Rosner also got another scout and won from a less pretentious boxer.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

Yes, SENSIBLE—because it's comfortable

THERE are other good tasting cigarettes. Fatima isn't the only good one. But when it comes to comfort—there is probably no other cigarette in the world quite the equal of Fatimas. Fatima's Turkish Blend is so delicately balanced that it leaves a man feeling keen and fit even after a long-smoking day. You could prove this for yourself.
